Saint Stephen's Music 2019-2020

It's a pleasure to look over the repertoire of music planned by Maestro Busby for the 2019-2020 choral season. It is rich from the Catholic and Anglican tradition ancient and modern. One particular pleasure this season will be the chanted Psalms using both Gregorian and Anglican chants. Mention of the Psalms makes us realize that music is not an addition to the liturgy; it is part and parcel of it, like marrow in the bones, and has been from the Song of Moses and Miriam at the shore of the Red Sea. Just to give one other but even more decisive example: When Jesus and his disciples were finished with the Last Supper (and the First Mass), before they went out, they sang a hymn. Sacred Music indeed.
